Jennifer Concklin announced as TNT operations manager

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis. – The Neighborhood Table (TNT), a free community meal program, today announced that Jennifer Concklin will now serve as its operations manager. Concklin comes to this position with over five years of experience in the field of helping those in need, primarily at The Random Acts of Kindness Center in Wisconsin Rapids.

Mary Schultz, President of TNT, said, “Our free community meal program has been in existence for 15 years and it is important for our organization to have a dedicated person to carry out the day-to-day operations. Jennifer brings experience and good insights to the job. She will be key to collaborating with other organizations with similar goals and to promote the awareness of hunger issues that face our community and surrounding area.”

About The Neighborhood Table

The Neighborhood Table (TNT) is a nonprofit 501(c)3 charitable organization with the mission to reduce hunger, improve the quality of life and create an awareness of the needs that exist in the Wisconsin Rapids community and surrounding area. The organization was formed in late 2003 and has grown to serving approximately 20,000 meals annually on 75 meal dates. TNT meals are served every Thursday and the last two Tuesdays of each month. More than 115 different groups, businesses and clubs in the area sponsor TNT meals.

We share not only a meal, but also an atmosphere of hospitality and mutual respect.

Core volunteers of The Neighborhood Table carry out the meal/soup kitchen program by offering a free meal to anyone in need. Meals are served from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the United Methodist Church of Wisconsin Rapids, 441 Garfield Street, Wisconsin Rapids. Take-out meals are available on Thursdays only by calling 715-422-1980. TNT's Board of Directors guides the organization's efforts through its Operations Manager. The program serves the communities of Wisconsin Rapids, Nekoosa, Port Edwards and surrounding areas in central Wisconsin.
